Hematological Diseases (ERN EuroBloodNet)

World Sickle Cell Awareness Day 19th June 2021

ERN-EuroBloodNet's multi level actions in the field of Sickle Cell Disease (SCD) aims at wide distribution of knowledge and cross border patients support using different approaches:

Webinars for health professionals and patients

Online educational courses targetting SCD

 ${\it Visit EuroBloodNet's EDU channel on } \underline{{\it YouTube}} {\it to watch} \\ {\it videos}$

Preceptorships for health professionals

Short stays on SCD in expert Health Care Providers, members of the ENR-EuroBloodNet, accredited by European Board of Accreditation in Hematology (EBAH) Continuing Medical Education points

SCD patient priority blog

A blog written by people living with SCD

European patients' registries

ENROL - European Rare Blood Disorders Platform

RADeep - The Rare Anemia Disorders European Platform

Visit www.eurobloodnet.eu and www.radeepnetwork.eu

Training sessions for patients and caregivers

SCD Educational Sessions for people living with SCD at ASCAT $\underline{2019}$ and $\underline{2020}$

Repository of Educational Material for Health professionals and patients

International existing documents for best practices, patient therapeutic education and development of (unique) International guidelines on clinical management

A bottom-up umbrella network of national and local organizations of SCD patients' advocates coordination@eurobloodnet.eu www.eurobloodnet.eu www.eurobloodnet.eu/newsletter/

Covering more than 400 rare and complex hematological diseases, ERN-EuroBloodNet offers its online facilities, services and expertise to support orphan blood disorders.

